

February 24, 2004

To Whom It May Concern:

Ann Edenfield is an energetic highly motivated individual who has valuable experience working with youth. She is applying for funding to assist children to succeed in developing better and more acceptable survival skills.

When your funding proposals are discussed, debated and sorted out please do everything in your power to provide full funding to support her initiatives.

Sincerely,

Eloy L. Mondragon, Corrections Consultant
Former Secretary of Corrections, State of New Mexico